Dear Steve,

My sister's best friend is a man named Tom. They have been friends for six years and go everywhere together. They spend the night at each other's house a few times a week. My sister insists that they have never had sex. She says that they are best friends only. Before you suggest it Tom is not gay. My family and I cannot believe that they have not had sex. Can a relationship between a man and a woman be only emotional and not sexual for six years?

Dear Kenneth,

There are sexless relationships between men and women in every town in the United States. That relationship is usually called marriage.

Dear Steve,

I am a 28-year-old woman married to a 30-year-old man for 5 years. My husband James has been staying gone all night long a couple nights a week for the last 2 years. He says he's out partying with his friends and does not want to drink and drive so he crashes at a friend's house. He has come home a couple of times without his underwear. I hold a full time job and pay the bills while he lays around. I have to pay someone to mow the grass. Steve, what do you think of my husband James?

Dear Worn,

What do I think of your husband James? I think your husband James is married to a dumb-ass!

Dear Steve,

As my wife and I get older she seems to have lost interest in doing anything. On the days that we are off together I want to go do something but all she wants to do is watch TV. Steve you're starting to get older what do you and your wife do for entertainment?

Dear John,

My old lady and I get 1 day off a week together. We try to spend that day fishing. After fishing Mary cleans the boat, cleans the fish and cooks fresh fish for supper. After supper is over she makes us a couple drinks and then I let her shave the hair off my back. We have a perfect relationship.
